priec@

UCDAVIS

WHEN

May 9th and 10th

WHERE

May 9: Student Community Center, 1-5 PM
May 10: UC Davis Alumni Center, 8:30-5 PM

FEATURING ·

PRIEC Undergraduate Research Conference (May 9)
PRIEC Meeting (May 10) featuring a roundtable on the 2020 Collaborative Multiracial Post-election Survey (May 10)

ACCOMMODATIONS and TRAVEL INFORMATION

If you are flying to the meeting, I recommend flying into Sacramento International Airport (SMF). The airport is about 25 minutes from campus. There are ample ride-share options to get from SMF to downtown Davis. For lodging, consider the following options: Best Western University Lodge, The Aggie Inn, The Hallmark Inn, Palm Court Hotel, and The Vine Inn. Additionally there are numerous Airbnb options in Davis. The event venues are within walking distance from downtown Davis. If you stay further away, I'd recommend using ride share services to get to and from campus. If you're attending the undergraduate conference, I'd recommend arriving on May 8th or very early on May 9th. I'd recommend departing on May 11th if you're attending the May 10th event. For social media, use the hashtag #PRIECatUCD.

ABOUT PRIEC

PRIEC is an ongoing series of meetings that brings together faculty and graduate students and showcases work-in-progress on racial/ethnic politics and the politics of immigration. The consortium's main objectives are to provide a forum and a resource for graduate students seeking mentoring and advice, and for faculty to collaborate and receive feedback on ongoing projects.

ABOUT PRIEC UNDERGRADUATE RESEARCH CONFERENCE

The PRIEC Undergraduate Research Conference will bring in undergraduate students to present work-in-progress on issues pertinent to race, ethnicity, and immigrations. The mission of the meeting is to better integrate undergraduate students into the research process, address the "pipeline" problem by encouraging students from underrepresented groups to present on-going research, and provide mentoring on research and graduate-level training.

May 9, UC Davis Student Community Center Multipurpose Room 1:00-5:00 PM
1:00—1:10: Opening Remarks

Panel 1: 1:10—2:20
Does Ethnic Solidarity Promote Support for Refugee-Seeking Migrants Among non-Refugee Communities?
Vianney Gómez
UCLA

Preserving Best Interests: Unaccompanied Minors in Detention
Ennely Medina
Northwestern University

Immigrant Incorporation and Political Participation: The Case of Arab Americans Maya Khuzam
UCLA

Roundtable: 2:30—3:25
Improving the Pipeline: Undergraduate Experiences, Mentorship, and the Possibility of Graduate School in the Social Sciences
Moderator: Natalie Rojas, University of California, Davis
Matt Barreto, UCLA
Gabriel Martinez, University of California, Davis
Melissa Michelson, Menlo College
Maricruz Osorio, UC Riverside

Panel 2: 3:35—5:00
Do political donations reduce ethnic inequities in government transparency?
Gabriel Elias Martínez
University of California, Davis

Latinos and Modern Day Vote Dilution: Voting rights and representation in Yuma, AZ
Julio Mendez Vargas
UCLA

Investigating the Effect of Stereotype Consistency on Counterfactual Thinking
Becky Neufeld
University of California, Davis

Exploring gender disparities in publication rates and in citations in social sciences research.
Emily Hatch, Michigan State University
Nazita Lajevardi, Michigan State University
Marissa Riversa, Michigan State University
Alexandra Rodriguez, Michigan State University

May 10, UC Davis Alumni Center, 8:30-6:00 PM

8:30—9:00: Continental breakfast
9:00—9:10: Opening Remarks

Panel 1
9:10—10:30: Bias, Discrimination, and Public Policy
When Policy Clashes: Understanding Policy Feedback of Social Programs in Varying Policy Environments
Rachel Torres, University of Iowa
Jielu Yao, University of Iowa
Rene Rocha, University of Iowa
Adriano Udani, University of Missouri, St. Louis

Unmediated Digital News Consumption and Support for Anti-Muslim American Policy Proposals
Nazita Lajevardi, Michigan State University
Kassra Oskooii, University of Delaware
Hannah Walker, Rutgers University

Environmental Pollution and Collective Mobilization: Preliminary evidence from Los Angeles County
Adria Vee Tinnin, UCLA

Panel 2
10:40—12:20: Time, Space, and Context of Racialized Policy
The Persistence of Historical Racial Violence on Bureaucratic Behavior
Marcel Roman, UCLA

Representation and development across groups: Evidence from a large-scale government program in India
Saad Gulzar, Stanford University
Nicholas Haas, New York University
Benjamin Pasquale, Independent Researcher

Immigration and State Violence in Guatemala: Economics, Politics, and Colonialism
Kristina Flores Victor, California State University Sacramento

Demographic and Political Change: The Great Migration's Impact on the Ideological and Policy
Preferences of Elected Officials
Chris Miljanich, University of California, Santa Barbara

12:20—1:20: Lunch and Graduate Student Mentoring Roundtable
Loren Collingwood, UC Riverside
Fan Lu, UC Davis
G. Cristina Mora, University of California

Niki Kalaf-Hughes, Bowling Green State University
Hannah Walker, Rutgers University

CMPS Roundtable
1:20—2:35: Roundtable on 2020 Collaborative Multiracial Postelection Survey (CMPS)
Lorrie Frasure-Yokley, UCLA
Matt Barreto UCLA

Panel 3
2:40—4:15: Some Implications of U.S. Immigration Policy
Understanding Anti-Immigrant Resentment in the Sanctuary State
G. Cristina Mora, University of California, Berkeley
Tianna S. Paschel, University of California, Berkeley

Unfair Detention: How Protests Activated Group Empathy to Shift Attitudes on Child Detention"
Loren Collingwood, University of California, Riverside
Jason Morin, California State University, Northridge
Edward Vargas, Arizona State University

Citizen Rights and Integration: The Case of Unauthorized Immigrants to the United States
Stephanie Zonszein, New York University

Where Does It Count? Political Socialization in Immigrant-Hostile and Immigrant-Welcoming States
Maricruz Ariana Osorio, University of California, Riverside

Panel 4
4:20—5:35: Bias, Race, and Representation
The Porosity of Descriptive Representation
Danielle Casarez Lemi, Michigan State University

One of our own? Why Asian American candidates cannot count on Asian votes
Fan Lu, University of California, Davis

Measuring Biases in Human Identification Machine Learning
Samuel Klein, University of California, Davis
Ryan Hutchings, University of California, Davis
Jeffrey Sherman, University of California, Davis