

FORUM ON IMMIGRATION

Organized by The Taskforce for the Center on Race, Immigration, and Social Justice (CRISJ)

PROMOTING SOCIAL JUSTICE: CHALLENGING EXCLUSION AND REMOVALS IN THE UNITED STATES

WEDNESDAY | APRIL 18TH, 2018 | GLOBAL LOUNGE

12-1:15pm

“Criminalized but Resilient: Latinx Undocumented Immigrants Fighting for Social Justice.”
Dr. Joanna Perez, Assistant Professor in the Sociology Department at CSU Dominguez Hills

Keynote MC: Dr. Elvia Ramirez, Associate Professor, Ethnic Studies, CSUS

1:30-2:45pm: Understanding and Resisting Current Exclusion and Violence Panel

David Buenrostro, California Immigrant Youth Justice Alliance (CIYJA)
Ayanna Yonemura, Instructor, Sociology and Ethnic Studies Departments, CSUS
Mercedes Valadez, Assistant Professor, Criminal Justice Department, CSUS
Saad Sweilem, Council on American-Islamic Relations
Chong Un Choe-Smith, Assistant Professor, Philosophy Department, CSUS
Moderated by Maria Vargas, Assistant Professor, CSUS

3-3:30pm: “Homeward Bound” reading presented by Teatro Espejo

3:30-5pm: Reception

Opening: Readings of “I Am Resilient! My Story, My Dreams!”

Music by: Beatriz Peregrina Figueroa

Featuring art from: Sociology Club | Luis Ramon Campos Garcia | Rosa Angelica Castañeda
and Gerardo Olvera’s Los Exiliados Project | Dominique Garcia | Celina Gonzalez-Cortez
Sarah Heart’ Humanizing Deportations Project | Chelsea Paez | Mayra Ramos Chavez
Yvonne Saldana | Antonio Sarabia | Ohnon | Ivan Vega | Jasmin Rios

In partnership with: CSUS Sociology Department, College of Social Science and Interdisciplinary Studies, Council on American-Islamic Relations, California (CAIR-CA), Multicultural Center, the California Faculty Association, and The One World Initiative.

For more information, contact Dr. Heidy Sarabia at heidy.sarabia@csus.edu.